SKILLS: * In partnership with ESPORTIF, All Black

Charismatic Richie Mo'unga is the sort of person you can't help but be drawn to.

A natural rugby player, he found successes on field at a young age. He won a rugby scholarship to St Andrews College, where he played in the first XV for 3 years - going on to captain the team in his final year of high school.

A year later, he was playing for Canterbury; became a New Zealand under 20's representative 12 months after that - before debuting for the Crusaders in 2016.

Richie is at the thin end of his career's wedge - a promising future laid ahead for this dynamic player. In 2017 he was named as an All Black, joining the squad as injury cover for the third Bledisloe Cup Test.

Blessed with boyish good looks, reliable Richie has been described as polite, charming and friendly. He's the type that is comfortable in all social settings, his easy-going nature and ready smile making him instantly likeable.

A Cantab through and through, Richie is brother-in-law to fellow All Black Owen Franks - and he loves being a doting, playful uncle to Owen's two young boys, Tom and Beau.

Richie's success on field has seen him grow a sizable following online. His engagement is through the roof - as his fans avidly follow everything he posts.

He's an excellent brand representative, his professional conduct and infectious personality making him an essential asset for any collaboration.
