'Blog with a Witty Name

Multi-talented broadcaster, Sharyn Casey, has been working in radio for 12 years. She has worked hard to move up the ranks, and now co-hosts The Edge's infamous afternoon show 'Jono, Ben & Sharyn'.

Sharyn writes weekly opinion pieces for Stuff.co.nz, covering an array of topical pop-culture stories. Not one to be camera-shy, she's been presenting live from the red carpet for the Vodafone New Zealand Music Awards for the last four years running. She's also co-hosted the X-Factor NZ after show 'The Xtra Factor', and was recently seen sharing the hosting responsibilities for TV3's Dancing With the Stars NZ with Dominic Bowden. Sharyn is a talented content creator, and also runs a blog called 'blogwithwittyname' which has attracted a large audience in a short space of time.

Sharyn has been honing her craft from the tender age of seven, when she would host her own versions of the 'Rick Dee's Weekly Top 40', complete with jingles, from her Timaru bedroom. When she's not working, Sharyn loves to indulge her passion for music, fitness, fashion and traveling. She enjoys taking her dog Warren on adventures outdoors, and is the self-confessed 'bad aunty' to her nephews and nieces.
