Simone started on her quest to lose weight and improve her health in 2014. She shared her progress on social media for accountability, which quickly drew a large and engaged following who supported her as she shed 92kg.

Her candid and open personality has seen her soar to the top, and her story has gained extensive coverage across national and international media, including publications like The Huffington Post, The Daily Mail, Elite Daily, Fashion Quarterly and the NZ Herald. In 2015 she was interviewed by Tyra Banks on her talk show, The FABLife. She also graced the October 2016 cover of Good Health magazine.

Simone now has well over 500,000 fans across her Facebook and Instagram pages who celebrate her every step of the way. Content creation is a strength of hers, and she always finds a way to put her unique imprint on creative. She has won the hearts of her followers, and delivers strong results for the campaigns she takes on.

A captivating and inspiring speaker, Simone uses her background in the performing arts to motivate and encourage audiences to start taking the steps towards their dreams.
