Outgoing and bubbly, Viarni Bright shot to stardom following her success on the 2017 season of The Bachelor NZ. Her popularity saw her rapidly grow an engaged social following, who she keeps updated with her enviable life snaps.

Viarni has amassed a lot of experience in front of the camera in recent years, as is evident in her effortless and upbeat presentation style.

A natural beauty, it's no surprise Viarni won the Girlfriend Magazine Model Search when she was a teenager, leading her to more opportunities and a contract in modelling.

When Viarni was 19, she made it into the pool of Top 10 Finalists for the MTV Video Journalist search. This helped her hone her skill and get truly comfortable broadcasting.

Charitable at heart, Viarni ensures she makes time for the important things in life. She frequently helps out with charities, such as Cure Kids and Crohn's and Colitis NZ - a cause close to her heart.

Viarni's social presence reflects her personality - it's fun, bright and active. She's often pictured at events or enjoying life outdoors. She's a talented content creator, and perfectly understands how to professionally craft an image to positively portray the brand to her youthful audience.
