Waisake Naholo is a formidable All Black winger - his speed and power unmatched on field.

Born in Fiji, he moved to New Zealand when he was 18 and quickly climbed the ranks of the rugby circuit. Starting with provincial rugby, he made his debut for Wanganui in 2009. From there he has played for Taranaki, the New Zealand U20 team, the New Zealand Sevens team, the Blues, the Highlanders - and finally, the All Blacks.

Known for his big smile and generous heart, Waisake is often the joker of the team. He's a real animal lover too, sharing a beautiful Bulldog with his partner, Moana. Mosko the Bulldog even has his own Instagram page which has grown to more than 5,000 fans.

Waisake is a creative by nature, with an eye for detail - which is evident in his Instagram feed, reflecting his love of photography through his images.

Although he was born in Fiji, Waisake loves the cold and living in Dunedin! He loves to rock the Swandris - and sometimes coordinates matching swannies with his dog.
