

Phoebe Falconer

Highly acclaimed international DJ sensation, Phoebe Falconer, has rejoined our sunny shores. After five years DJing abroad in Los Angeles, Phoebe held an impressive resume of weekly residencies, including The Spare Room (Roosevelt Hotel), Harvard & Stone, Standard Rooftop (Downtown LA) and more.

Before heading off to the bright lights of LA, Phoebe was the resident DJ at Euro for over two years. She also regularly DJ'd at Everybody's, Soul Bar and The Whiskey - as well as many special events including Fashion Week, Big Day Out and Vodafone NZ Music Awards after parties.

She has varied tastes, and a huge musical database to draw from. She enjoys playing a variety of tunes to set a mood - from the upbeat dance/electronic/house, to the more atmospheric background music of tropical house. She boasts a great upbeat disco/80's set - guaranteed to play all your old favourites.

Phoebe is also up to date with all that is new and hip, from indie and rock'n'roll sounds to old school hip-hop. She loves remixing the old classics in an unexpected way, surprising and delighting her audiences with her eclectic mashups which sync together oh-so well.

Phoebe is an expert at playing to her crowd, and really knows how to set the mood of an event - ensuring the good times flow - a fabulous addition and 'must have' for any occasion!
