

Andrew Maher

Hair White Eyes Blue/Grey

Andrew's mellifluous, deep baritone has been honed over many years of stage acting and public speaking. His experience in these areas makes him well suited to narrative style voice overs in addition to reading commercial scripts.

As a regular choral singer Andrew's voice spans from bass to low tenor in pitch and he is well used to varying pitch according to requirements.

His regular acting engagements include a number of comedic performances which have honed his dramatic and comedic timing.

Andrew has utilised accents on stage and is competent and comfortable with American, Australian, German and British accents.

He has previously recorded commercials for The Radio Network.
